

MONTANA TRIP

An Invitation to Step Away and Reset

Leadership rarely slows down long enough to breathe. Refuge exists to create sacred pauses, intentional space to rest, reflect, and reconnect with what matters most.

This invitation comes through a trusted host who believes this time away could be meaningful for you. Each Refuge experience is small, private, and intentionally low-agenda. There's no packed schedule, no heavy teaching — just space to rest, laugh, and connect with others who carry the weight of leadership.

The trip takes place in the wide-open beauty of Montana, where simplicity, conversation, and community become the backdrop for renewal. You won't need to plan or prepare for anything, just show up ready to rest and be served.

QUICK DETAILS / FAQs

Who It's For

Leaders in ministry or the marketplace who live at a fast pace and need space to slow down, breathe, and gain perspective.

Do I Need to Know How to Fly Fish?

Not at all. Many guests have never fished before. All gear is provided, including waders, boots, and fly rods, and patient guides will take care of the rest.

What's Included

Lodging, meals, and guided activities are all arranged. The Refuge team handles every detail so you can fully unplug.

What's the Contribution?

The suggested donation for your trip is $1,495.

It helps tremendously if you can do more than this, and if you can't do the full $1,495 then please still donate what you are able to.

Everyone donating something is what keeps the lights on for Refuge.

Travel Notes

Fly into Billings, Montana (BIL) by 2:00 PM on your arrival day. All ground transportation and logistics are handled by the Refuge team.

Next Steps

Connect directly with your host to confirm your spot and receive final trip details.

Refuge creates space for leaders to rest, reflect, and regain strength, so they can return home with renewed clarity and purpose.

We exist to keep world changers in the game.

WYOMING TRIP

An Invitation to Step Away and Reset

Leadership rarely slows down long enough to breathe. Refuge exists to create sacred pauses. Intentional space to rest, reflect, and reconnect with what matters most.

This invitation comes through a trusted host who believes this time away could be meaningful for you. Each Refuge experience is small, private, and intentionally low-agenda. There's no packed schedule, no heavy teaching, just space to rest, laugh, and connect with others who carry the weight of leadership.

The trip takes place in the wide-open beauty of Wyoming, where simplicity, conversation, and community become the backdrop for renewal. You won't need to plan or prepare for anything. Just show up ready to rest and be served.

QUICK DETAILS / FAQs

Who It's For

Leaders in ministry or the marketplace who live at a fast pace and need space to slow down, breathe, and gain perspective.

Do I Need to Know How to Fly Fish?

Not at all. Many guests have never fished before. All gear is provided. This includes, waders, boots, and fly rods, our patient guides will take care of the rest.

What's Included

Lodging, meals, and guided activities are all arranged. The Refuge team handles every detail so you can fully unplug.

What's the Contribution?

The suggested donation for your trip is $1,495.

It helps tremendously if you can do more than this, and if you can't do the full $1,495 then please still donate what you are able to. Everyone donating something is what keeps the lights on for Refuge.

Travel Notes

Fly into Billings, Montana (BIL) by 2:00 PM on your arrival day. All ground transportation and logistics are handled by the Refuge team. Cody, WY (COD) is an alternative airport to fly into but please confirm with your host.

Next Steps

Connect directly with your host to confirm your spot and receive final trip details.

Refuge creates space for leaders to rest, reflect, and regain strength, so they can return home with renewed clarity and purpose.

We exist to keep world changers in the game.

REFUGE

REFUGE CANVAS

An Invitation to Step Away and Reset

Refuge Canvas is the same Refuge experience you would have at our Bluffs location. These are parallel trips not a secondary option.

If you're familiar with the broader trend toward elevated glamping and upscale canvas experiences, Refuge Canvas fits squarely in that category, while remaining fully Refuge. Think canvas lodging paired with full-service hospitality. This is not "camping," and it's certainly not a step down in experience.

QUICK DETAILS / FAQs

Who It's For

Leaders in ministry or the marketplace who live at a fast pace and need space to slow down, breathe, and gain perspective.

What's the Contribution?

The suggested donation for your trip is $1,495. It helps tremendously if you can do more than this, and if you can't do the full $1,495 then please still donate what you are able to.

Everyone donating something is what keeps the lights on for Refuge.

Travel Notes

Fly into Billings, Montana (BIL) by 2:00 PM on your arrival day. All ground transportation and logistics are handled by the Refuge team.

Next Steps

Connect directly with your host to confirm your spot and receive final trip details.

Refuge creates space for leaders to rest, reflect, and regain strength, so they can return home with renewed clarity and purpose.

We exist to keep world changers in the game.